

EXTRAORDINARY LIVING FOR EXTRAORDINARY LIVES

LUXURY

LAS VEGAS

MODE TO SPRING

SHAPE SHIFTER

From tables and bookshelves to baubles and vanity boxes, geometric designs dominated the recent Las Vegas Winter Market. The furniture and décor showcase featured pieces that experimented with bold, fun shapes without sacrificing functionality. All the circles, triangles, hexagons and obelisks proved the theorem that these luxe and livable pieces will bring a fresh new vibe to any space. — Rebecca Orlov

Pink Trellis rug by Arthide
A constellation of shapes can be found within Arthide's new Aia Collection. Vibrant colors bring energy into any room. $2,495 and $2,895

Mural Cloud Chandelier by OLY
What will you see in these glass clouds? Likely one of the most gorgeous statement lighting pieces around. $4,750

Rose Belly Old World Metallic
by Genevieve Gordon
Scalloped wall adornment is easier to display with Tempaper's new removable wallpaper line, created with celebrity designers. $125 per roll (56 feet)

Belmont gold pitcher & licated gold bottle opener by VSKO
These 18-karat layered cocktail pieces practically define sleek and uber-edgy style. $50 and $16

3

2

Zoom in

1

Scalene Sideboard by Noir
The multi-dimensional facade of this handsome piece means it looks different from every angle. $3,240

- Queen Bee Bookcases by Noh
Symmetry and balance make these shelves as pretty as they are practical. $4,050
- Dorabella ottoman by CRYAN Design
Kick your feet up in heavenly style with this blue velvet and brushed brass ottoman. $1,092
- Gardner stool by Duncan Hughes for Dowel
Customize your own round-edged Gardner Stool in an array of velvet colors and material finishes. Pricing starts at $750.
- Dandelion by Christopher Gray
An inspired wooden interpretation of dandelions that inspire countless dreams. In this case, a permanent luxurious wish. $4,359