DEFINING MOMENT

MODERN AND CONTEMPORARY ART WING

Home to pieces by Pablo Picasso, Roy Lichtenstein, and Georgia O'Keefe, this department is a who's who of the modern art movement. It was the modernists' unusual subject matters (like Mark Rothko's colorful shapes) and techniques (see Jackson Pollock's paint splatter application) that left them vulnerable to criticism for straying from tradition. Today, those walls exhibit some of the most sought-after names in the art world.
